

Department Staff

The West Pottsgrove Township Police Department was started in the early 1950s. At that time the Police Department consisted of of one person. Today the Police Department consists of a police chief and seven full-time officers:

Chief:

Joseph F. Sokolofski

Supervisors:

Corporal Timothy T. Roeder

Corporal Robert J. Radswillas

Officers:

Officer Andrew N. Peifer

Officer Robert N. Stoudt

Officer Adam L. Zieske

Officer Andrew R. Slavin

Officer Brian J. Douglas

All of the officers have extensive training in one or more specialized areas of police work including:

- Accident investigation
- D.U.I. enforcement
- Firearms instruction
- Narcotics investigations & identification
- Child abuse
- Sex crimes
- Juvenile crimes
- Community policing
- Child safety seat instruction